Prayer of the Day

*Almighty God,
 by the inspired witness of Mark the evangelist
 you have given to your Church the gospel
 of Jesus Christ your son:
 strengthen us by this saving message
 that we may not be carried away with every changing wind of doctrine
 but be firmly grounded in the truth of your word;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord,
 who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
 one God, world without end. Amen*

* You are invited to join in this Prayer immediately before today's readings

ANZAC DAY

Sentence

'No one has greater love than this, than to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends,' says the Lord, 'if you do what I command you.'

Prayer of the Day

O God, our ruler and guide, in whose hands are the destinies of this and every nation, we give you thanks for the freedoms we enjoy in this land and for those who laid down their lives to defend them:

We pray that we and all the people of Australia, gratefully remembering their courage and their sacrifice, may have grace to live in a spirit of justice, of generosity, and of peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Vicar Writes

Saint Mark, one of the four evangelists who wrote the gospel of Mark, was an associate of both Saint Peter and Saint Paul. Mark was also known as John Mark, tradition says it was at his mother's place that the Last Supper was held. Mark travelled with Paul and Barnabas and was a major part of the mission of the Apostles in Rome. It is believed that Mark was the first bishop of Alexandria and spent time in Italy, especially Venice where we have the Basilica of Saint Mark today.

Saint Mark was a Jew and so his gospel contains considerable knowledge of Palestine. Tradition holds that Mark's gospel was influenced by Saint Peter and was written in Rome, though some modern scholars contest this. Mark's gospel is written with the view of establishing faith in Jesus as the Messiah and his Messiahship is pointed to in the beginning of the gospel with the Lord's baptism. Mark's gospel was written around the themes of the church, the Kingdom of God, the Messiah and the suffering Son of Man.

There is great benefit in praying to the saints, asking them to pray to the Lord for you because they live in great intimacy with Christ who always grants their wishes. The Lord loves His servants and a true servant of Christ is one who loves the servants of the Lord. Love of God is such that one becomes filled with love for those who love the Lord. If we are antagonistic towards the saints, those who were sent by the Lord, we are antagonistic towards the Lord.

Very few people appreciate the glory of God, devotion to God and the saints whose hearts are filled with devotion. To teach the importance of this is the highest welfare activity because devotion to the Lord and the saints is the only avenue that leads to sterna association with the Lord. Today's world appreciates only those things that bring economic or political or social benefits. Someone has to live for God and teach others to do the same.

Saint Mark and the Apostles and saints all gave their life for the love of God. Our baptism calls us to do the same. To love God with all our heart mind and strength is the great command of God, and a second is like it, to love one's neighbour as one's self.
