FOOTY PARKING

Thanks to all who assisted with Footy Parking yesterday
- just as well it's mid-season as the Cats have some work to do if they are to influence the finals!

But we continue to offer Footy Parking whenever there is a home match - and the next one is on Friday 8th July (play starts at 7.50pm) when the Cats play Sydney in what is shaping up to be a huge match - we'll be offering parking from about 5.45pm onwards - all helpers are welcome!

We acknowledge the Wathaurong people of the Kulin Nation as the traditional custodians of the lands on which Christ Church and its buildings now stand.

ABM Reflection

Most of the time, Jesus' healing miracles are a result of someone coming to him and asking for healing - either for themselves or a family member. In the case at Nain no one approaches Jesus to ask for healing. Jesus just walks up to the bier and raises the son.

Why? We are told that Jesus has compassion for the mother. We do not even know if the mother was a follower or not, but Jesus still showed his compassion. Jesus' compassion for us is always there, even when we do not pray for it. He is there for us in our times of strife, illness and grief. It is there even for those who do not believe (or at least do not openly indicate that.) We need to remember this and to help those who cannot recognize Jesus' compassion for all to realize that he is always there for everyone.

- Pray for those who are mourning lost loved ones; that they may know that Jesus is there beside them in their grief.
- Give thanks for the Church of Ceylon, which covers most of Sri Lanka, remembering their ministry in a multi-religious context x.
